The Feasts of All Saints and All Souls

Praying for those who have died in the Lord has always been an important part of the Church's tradition. The month of November and, particularly, the celebration of the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls call us as believers to remember our own mortality and to pray especially for those whom God has already called to eternal life.

This year, our parish will again celebrate Memorial Masses for all the deceased of our parish. Those who have experienced the death of a loved one during last year should have received a personal invitation through mail. All are invited to these special liturgies.

The Memorial Masses will take place today, Sunday, Nov. 1st at the 9:30am mass at St. Barbara Church and at the 10:30am mass at St. Therese Church. On All Souls' Day, Monday, Nov. 2nd, we will have the 8am regular Mass at St. Therese and a 7pm mass at St. Barbara.

We hope you can join us to remember your loved ones who have gone before us and to worship God through whose love we are in communion with those who have gone before us in faith.

First Friday

This Friday is the First Friday of the month. The monthly First Friday devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus will take place at St. Therese Church at 7:00 pm.

First Saturday

The First Saturday Healing Mass will be held at St. Barbara Church on Saturday, November 7th, at 8:00 am.

ELECTION RESOURCE:

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." - Pope Francis, 9/16/13

The Catholic bishops of the United States are pleased to offer once again to the Catholic faithful Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship (en Español), our teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics. This statement represents our guidance for Catholics in the exercise of their rights and duties as participants in our democracy. We urge our pastors, lay and religious faithful, and all people of good will to use this statement to help form their consciences; to teach those entrusted to their care; to contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue; and to shape political choices in the coming election in light of Catholic teaching. The statement lifts up our dual heritage as both faithful Catholics and American citizens with rights and duties as participants in the civil order. ## ALL SAINTS AND SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

This year, the Solemnity of All Saints falls on this Sunday. As we celebrate the lives of All Saints, we are reminded of our call to be holy and to be saints.

Each of us has our favorite saints and we know their stories and they continue to inspire us and to intercede for us. Who is the blessed Saint that you ask for intercessions? What do you need his/her help for today?

One of my favorite Saints is St. Francis of Assisi. His simplicity and his dedicated care for the poor and for nature continue to challenge me to imitate his examples in the ways that I strive to live out my discipleship. I continue to turn to him to ask for help so that I have the courage and strength to live my life simply for others; I continue to beg him to ask the Lord to help me to be a good steward of God's gifts to me; and I continue to implore him to intercede for me to faithfully fulfill my vocation as a priest to God's Church and God's people.

Like you and me, most Saints lived ordinary lives, but with extraordinary love for God and for God's people. They too experienced earthly pains, sufferings, and all other human emotions. Most of them were not born to Sainthood; they had to constantly and positively respond to God's grace working in their lives. Many of them experienced great conversions and spiritual renewal in their relationships with God, others and themselves. One thing for sure is that they never gave up to trust and hope in the Lord. They continuously strove to perfect their love throughout their lives. At the end of their earthly life, they confidently trusted in the Lord's promise of eternal life reward for them as St. Paul passionately put, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing" (2 Timothy 4: 7-8).

In the midst of all our daily livings, particularly now with the threat of the COVID-19 and the opportunity of the upcoming presidential election, and the continued work on the unification and Renewal of our Parish, we especially need to rely on the intercessions of All Saints for our personal spiritual renewal. Our transformation by God's grace is the necessary foundation for us to be able to help others in fruitful ways.

All Saints, pray for us and for our parish! Happy All Saints to all!

Peace

Fr. Francis

ALL THE SAINTS By Sister Caritas

Today we celebrate a very special feast. The prayers and readings for today are not the usual Sunday readings. The Church is showing us how very special this feast is. The Church is pointing to the importance of saints. Every day of the year there is a celebration of a person whom the Church calls a saint. Those persons are Martyrs, those who gave up their lives because of their belief in Jesus and all that Jesus taught and all for which the Church stands. Saints have performed miracles which the Church has studied and said that the action which they consider a miracle could not have been done by human actions, but only through the action of God using a human being to do it. Saints are people, human beings, who have lived like Jesus, performing many kind, patient, and holy actions.

Have you been alive when a person whom the Church calls a saint was alive? If you are 15 or older, you were alive when Sister Lucia, a woman who was a child when Mary appeared to her and her cousins at Fatima, passed away. She has, along with her cousins, been called a saint. Were you alive in Sept., 1997? Mother Teresa of Calcutta was alive in August and before Sept. 5, 1997 when she died in Calcutta, India. Pope John Paul II died in April, 2002. So if you are 20 or older you were alive when he was. These are saints who were alive in recent times. The Church has called them saints. But today's feast is for the ordinary, holy people, who do not have special days. We celebrate them on this day. Maybe you know a holy person who was kind, sought peace, was merciful, and followed and acted like Jesus. Saints are married couples like St. Therese's parents, including mothers and fathers. Saints are grandparents, children, Priests, Sisters, brothers and sisters, cousins, all kinds of people.

Each of us who are baptized, who receive the gifts of faith, hope and charity and the gifts of the Holy Spirit, are called to be holy. Often we think of the Church window, the plaster statues or the stories, some which have elements that are strange, as what it means to be saints. The Gospel today tells us the basic ways of acting which are holiness as Jesus tells us. "Blessed", another word for Holy, tells us to act mercifully, be people who cling to God -- not just material things. Be those who seek justice, those who endure persecution for the sake of Jesus. The Psalm refrain tells us, saints "are those who long to see your face, oh Lord." We, those called to be holy, are the ones whom the first reading speaks of. "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb, Jesus." What about you? Will you pursue the life of holiness? Will you do what it takes to be a saint? Be the best You. Live out the life of Jesus in our world here, in Chicago, in Chinatown, in your family. Go make a difference. You CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE. Be Holy. Be today's SAINTS!

FOUNDATION CELEBRATION

On October 24, 2020, The School Sisters of Notre Dame, Sister Caritas' community of Sisters, celebrated the founding of the Congregation of Sisters existing for 187 years. The Sisters are an international Congregation founded in 1833 in Bavaria, Germany. Bishop Michael Whitman and Blessed Teresa Gerhardinger saw the need to educate girls, young women especially, among the poor of the area. A school was begun and soon a community formed to do this very important work. "If you educate the mothers, you educate the family." Sisters went to poor communities in the countryside and educated the poor girls. In 1847 Sister Teresa and five other Sisters and a novice landed in the New York harbor to bring work here in the United States. The first school was in St. Marys, Penn., and soon we founded a school and formation house in Baltimore. The Bishops asked us also to teach boys. We needed to change our constitution to adapt to the new ministry.

In the area of our parishes, the School Sisters of Notre Dame started and taught in Santa Lucia and in St. Maria Incoronata. The congregation spread throughout the United States and Canada. Missions in Africa, South America and Guam were started. The latest convent of Sisters began in South Sudan a month or two ago with four Sisters. Celebrate with us and continue to pray for vocations.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

MILDRED ("MILLIE") McCANN

Please keep the McCann Family in your prayers.
